Posted on November 17, 2021

Mawson has joined the Bitcoin Mining Council, a voluntary and open forum of Bitcoin Miners committed to the network and its core principles.

Mawson's integrated model is based on a long-term strategy to assist in the global transition to a decarbonized society.

Sydney, Australia — November 17th, 2021 — Mawson Infrastructure Group Inc. (NASDAQ:MIGI) ("Mawson"), a digital infrastructure provider, is pleased to announce it has joined the Bitcoin Mining Council, a voluntary and open forum of Bitcoin Miners committed to the network and its core principles.

The mandate of the Bitcoin Mining Council is to promote transparency, share best practices, and educate the public on the benefits of Bitcoin and Bitcoin Mining.

Mawson is committed to being a sustainable and efficient Bitcoin Miner and uses predominantly non-carbon emitting/sustainable energy including nuclear, wind and hydro.

James Manning, CEO and Founder of Mawson, said, "We are delighted to join the Bitcoin Mining Council and are excited to share our insights on sustainable energy with the council and the public. Mawson recently signed a partnership with Quinbrook Infrastructure Partners, a global green energy infrastructure fund, with our first site now operational in Australia, co-located next to a 100% renewable energy generation asset. We believe this is the future of the industry and are excited to be at the forefront."
